YSARC CLUB RULES AND EXPECTATIONS

Our Mission Statement.

- To promote camaraderie and good will between amateur radio operators.
- Bring new people into the hobby through training and education and providing testing.
- To provide communication support and assist in public and emergency service.
- To be thoughtful and courteous ambassadors on ham bands the world over.
- To have fun with all things radio

The Yuba Sutter Amateur Radio Club promotes and expects respectful, courteous, and civil treatment by its membership at all times. Any behavior contrary to the above will result in appropriate action by the Yuba Sutter Amateur Radio Club Board. An infraction of these rules are subject to expulsion from the club.

The Yuba Sutter Amateur Radio Club may, in sole discretion, amend these Club Rules and regulations from time to time. Amendments will be effective when posted on the Club Website and/or by informing the membership. These Club Rules shall apply to all persons during any club activity. The Club Board of Directors shall be the representative for implementing and enforcing these Club Rules. Participation in the Yuba Sutter Amateur Radio Club will be at the approval of the Board of Directors. All members or prospective members to the club will be considered in terms of attitude, compatibility and overall participation in the club. Final determination for membership lies with the clubs Board of Directors; however, the opinions of some or all of the participants may be solicited for approval or denial. If approved for membership, common courtesy to fellow members will be expected at all times.
